

Your Draft Copy is Enclosed

You must return this form by: _____

failure to do so will result in your footage being deleted and no further changes will be possible.

Once you've watched your film, all you need to do is decide what order you would like us to place each reel for the final DVD, and choose an appropriate title for each reel on the DVD menu (if you've ordered one).

There is a colourful screen saying "Reel Change" between each cine reel to help you understand where one reel has ended and the next has begun.

Your DVD player can also tell you exactly which chapter you're viewing either on the display on the front of the player, or as on-screen information, usually made viewable by pressing 'display' on your remote control.

In the first line we've shown you an example whereby the first reel on the Draft DVD will need to be placed 5th on the finished version, and we would like to title that reel "Holiday to Bournemouth 1965". Please proceed to complete the boxes with your information.

You have ordered a DVD menu, so please give us a title for each chapter.

You have not ordered a DVD menu but if you initial this box: we will upgrade you and add £50 to your bill so you can benefit from this wonderful feature.

We hope you enjoy your film!
